CLOSET CONFIDENTIAL

What jewelry do you wear?

I wear my wedding and engagement rings and I normally wear a necklace from my great-grandmother. It's a very meaningful piece of jewelry. It means "to life" and when I wear it, it reminds me to keep things in perspective. Otherwise, I don't wear a lot of accessories. I like to keep things simple.

What's missing from your closet?

Believe it or not, a good pantsuit! I haven't been able to find the perfect pantsuit, and skirts and dresses don't really work in the winter.

Tell me about your jewelry.

I have some sentimental pieces. Here's a bracelet that my dad bought for my mom. Her home was broken into and this was recovered.

My boyfriend bought me this bracelet. I lost it in the Amsterdam airport in security. I was beside myself! I called every day about it. One day, security said they had my bracelet! I flew back through that airport so I was able to pick it up.

What's missing from your closet?

I lost a charm bracelet I had when I was little. I would like to add that back into my closet.

Other than that, I'm more of a forager so when I find something great I get it but I don't go out looking for things.

I still have a pair of Nine West shoes that I wore in high school along with blue and white cheerleading saddle shoes.

What do you do for handbags?

I have Henri Bendel, Kate Spade, Hammitt bags. If someone bought me a Birkin I wouldn't turn it down. For everyday, I use a 20-year-old Coach. I also use my Tumi tote then add a shoulder or crossbody bag when I travel.

I see others with fabulous purses but when I shop I'd rather buy shoes.

Which TV attorney is your fashion idol?

Back in the day, Ally McBeal. Nowadays, Rose Byrne in "Damages."

What about your jewelry and accessories?

I don't have anything I wear every day. I own quite a few Nancy Golden necklaces that always get noticed when I wear them. I go through stages with jewelry. I can wear the same pair of earrings every day for a month. Then I switch. I'm a serial jewelry wearer!

What's missing from your closet?

I would like a nice Armani suit that would last forever. □
